Myspace Tips for Parents

Safety Tips - Tips for Parents - ParentCare

MySpace makes it easy to express yourself, connect with friends and make new ones, but please remember that what you post publicly can be read by anyone viewing your profile, so we suggest you consider the following guidelines when using MySpace: ...namespace prefix = o ns = "urn:schemas-microsoft-com:office:office" />

- Don't forget that your profile and MySpace forums are public spaces. Don't post anything you wouldn't want the world to know (e.g., your phone number, address, IM screens name, or specific whereabouts). Avoid posting anything that would make it easy for a stranger to find you, such as where you hang out every day after school.
- People aren't always who they say they are. Be careful about adding people you don't know in the physical world to your friends list. It's fun to connect with new MySpace friends from all over the world, but avoid meeting people in person whom you do not already know in the physical world. If you decide to meet someone you've met on MySpace, tell your parents first, do it in a public place and bring a trusted adult.
- Harassment, hate speech and inappropriate content should be reported. If you feel someone's behavior is inappropriate, react. Talk with a trusted adult, or report it to MySpace or the authorities.
- Don't post anything that would embarrass you later. It's easy to think that only people you know are looking at your MySpace page, but the truth is that everyone can see it. Think twice before posting a photo or information you wouldn't want others to see, including potential employers or colleges!
- Do not lie about your age. Your profile may be deleted and your Membership may be terminated without warning if we believe that you are under 14 years of age or if we believe you are 14 through 17 years of age and you represent yourself as 18 or older.
- Don't get hooked by a phishing scam. Phishing is a method used by fraudsters to try to get your personal information, such as your username and password, by pretending to be a site you trust. Click here to learn more.

The Easter Tale.....

- 17-year old throws Easter party inviting 40 friends
- Sends invitation via MySpace
- “Let’s all trash the average, family-sized house disco party”
- 200+ “guests” - drinking, drugs
- $50,000 worth of damage to home

On-line “social networks”

- Facebook.com 34 million
- Xanga.com 40 million
- Classmates.com 40 million
- Friendster.com 47 million
- hi5.com 50 million
- Windows Live Spaces 120 million

MySpace – 200 million

What's really happening on-line

- 1 in 7 people sexually solicited or approached on Internet
- 70% of them are girls
- 34% provide name, address, school info
- Nearly half providing age or birthday
- 1 in 5 posting personal photos

Data from University of New Hampshire study cited by U.S. Department of Justice

Who's looking?

- As of July 2007, MySpace.com has found more than 29,000 registered sex offenders – four times the original estimate
- Criminal incidents have doubled in first six months of 2007 compared to 2006

Parents vs. Predators

- In February 2007, U.S. District Judge in Texas dismissed case against MySpace.com for negligence, fraud and misrepresentation.
- 13 year old girl claimed she was 18 and later sexually assaulted by man she met on MySpace.

Parents vs. Predators

- U.S. District Judge Sam Sparks wrote:

“If anyone had a duty to protect Julie Doe, it was her parents, not MySpace.”

Danger signs:

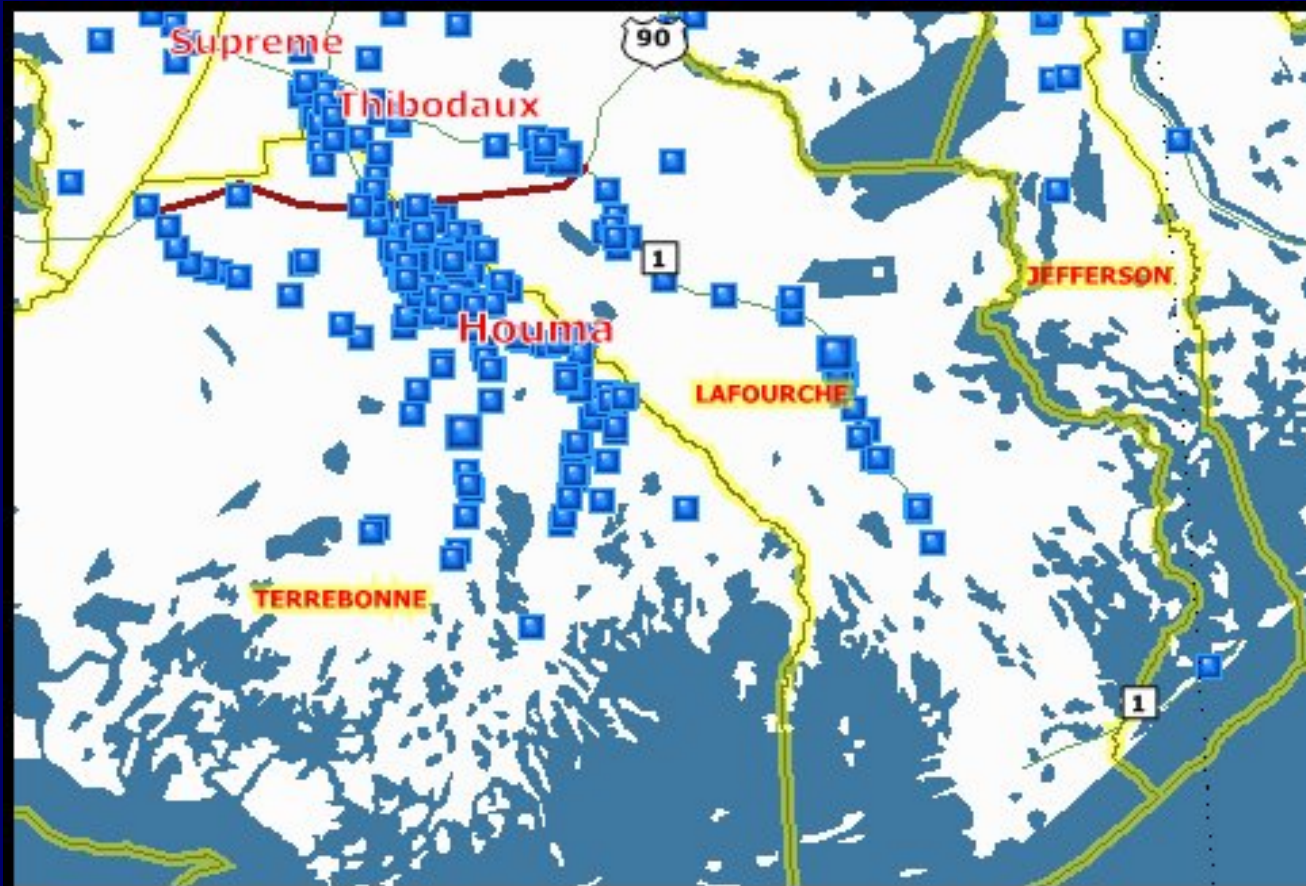

- Your child spends large amounts of time on-line, especially at night
 - On-line after school (3:30 p.m. – 6 p.m.) before parents return from work
 - Prior to bedtime (8:30 p.m. – 9:30 p.m.)
 - Any time child is alone without parental supervision
- You find pornography on your child's computer
- Your child –
 - Receives phone calls from men you don't know
 - Makes calls to numbers you don't recognize
 - Gets mail from email addresses you don't recognize
 - Visits questionable websites
- Your child receives gifts, mail, or packages from strangers

Danger Signs:

- Your child turns the computer monitor off quickly or changes the screen
- Your child becomes withdrawn from the family
- Your child is using an online account, belonging to someone else
